

the writers' tent

at Newtown
Festival 09

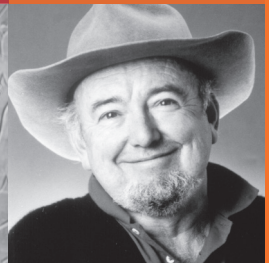

11.00am

Poetry

12.00pm

1.00pm

Newtown's Performance Poets

Local poets will entertain with their unique blend of poetry, music and rhyme.

Charlotte Wood

More or Less: Siblingship and the Only Child

Tegan Bennett Daylight, Ashley Hay and Charlotte Wood compare experiences of siblingship and the only child, through their contributions to Brothers & Sisters – a brand-new collection of writing about siblings by 12 of Australia's finest writers.

Thomas Keneally

Australians – Volume 1, Origins to Eureka

Booker Prize winner and Australian icon, Tom Keneally helps define who we are, by bringing to life the vast range of characters who have formed our national story.

The Writers' Tent
is located near the corner of Lennox and Church Streets.

Sponsored by

BETTER READ THAN DEAD

ALLEN & UNWIN
BOOK PUBLISHERS

the writers' tent

at Newtown
Festival 09

2.00pm

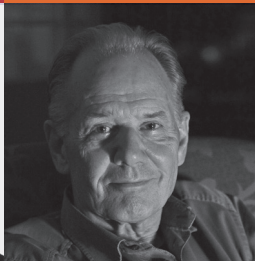

Robert Forster

The Ten Rules of Rock & Roll

In conversation with Bernard Zuel, Robert talks about his life as a Go Between, his subsequent solo music career, and how he established himself as one of our finest music critics.

2.45pm

Alex Miller

Lovesong

Alex chats with Anita Heiss about his new novel, a deeply moving story of intertwined lives, each undone by desire.

3.30pm

Richard Glover

The Mud House

ABC broadcaster and columnist Richard Glover talks about his funny, frank and thought-provoking memoir, The Mud House, and about how four friends set out to build an edifice that would outlast them all.

4.15pm

Reg Mombassa

The Mind & Times of Reg Mombassa

Musician, writer, and iconic illustrator Reg Mombassa talks with Murray Waldren about his life as a writer, musician and designer, from his days with the Mentals to his work on Mambo for the Sydney Olympics and more, demonstrating he still has plenty of inspiration left.

Sponsored by

BETTER READ THAN DEAD